This mission directive prescribes the mission, organization, and responsibilities for Air Force Reserve Command (AFRC) security forces squadrons/flights (SFS/SFF).

1. Mission: Ensures organization, training, equipage, and combat readiness of wartime-tasked unit type codes (UTC) according to gaining command standards. Supports other AFRC readiness and exercise requirements as directed. Organizes, equips, trains, and administers forces to participate in prompt and sustained operations. Installation security forces protect the Air Force combat capability of assigned forces and provide force protection at reserve host base locations. Maintains law and order at host base locations; develops and maintains a viable detection program; and manages the installation information, personnel, industrial security, resource protection, crime prevention and security programs.

2. Command. The commander or chief, SFS/SFF, reports directly to the support group or regional support group to which assigned. Applicability is at attachment 1.

3. Assigned Forces. While in peacetime status and during 2 weeks of annual training, the SFS/SFF are under the direct control and supervision of the support group commander or regional support group commander to which assigned. Under Presidential call-up pursuant to Title 10 U.S.C. 12304, administrative jurisdiction remains unchanged. Operational control transfers to the commander of the gaining command. Under mobilization authority, command jurisdiction transfers to the commander of the unit to which assigned by the gaining command.

4. Relationships to Other Units. Established command channels apply.

DAVID S. SIBLEY, Brig Gen, USAFR
Assistant Vice Commander
